KUALA LUMPUR, Jan 8 (Bernama) -- City police chief Datuk Mohmad Salleh has asked Parti Keadilan Rakyat (PKR) deputy president Azmin Ali to ensure the party abides by the 10 conditions set to hold an assembly tomorrow, including ensuring only 5,000 people were allowed to gather in the car park of the Kuala Lumpur High Court.

He denied Azmin's statement which alleged the police did not impose such conditions for the assembly, describing him as being dishonest and untrustworthy for issuing the statement.

"I am disappointed with his ungentlemanly behaviour and lies," he said when referring to Azmin's statement published in a news portal yesterday.

Mohmad told a news conference at the city police headquarters here today, that Azmin, PKR Youth chief Shamsul Iskandar Mohd Akin and three others from PKR had agreed with the 10 conditions in their discussion at the headquarters on Friday.

In fact, the letter on the 10 conditions was signed by Shamsul Iskandar in the presence of Sentul police chief ACP Zakaria Pagan at the Sentul police headquarters yesterday, he said.

"We took a picture during the discussion and we have a signed copy of the conditions with PKR's agreement," he added.

On participation in the assembly, Mohmad stressed that PKR should ensure only 5,000 people could assemble at the car park.

"If there were more than 5,000 people, spilling out of the location, then it is a violation of the agreed condition.

"Anyone can participate but there must not be more than 5,000, those who come later would have to leave.

"They could do anything in the specified area during the assembly but participants must not spill over the place," he said, adding that the police would act if the agreement was violated.

Tomorrow's assembly will be held by supporters of Datuk Seri Anwar Ibrahim, in view of the Kuala Lumpur High Court announcement of its decision in the sodomy trial involving the opposition leader and his former assistant, Mohd Saiful Bukhari Azlan.
