SEREMBAN, Jan 9 (Bernama) -- Various activities were held during the three-day 1Malaysia People's programme which ended Sunday, at the Desa Rhu public grounds here.

The programme was organised by the information communication and culture ministry, with the cooperation of the Information Department.

Minister Datuk Seri Dr Rais Yatim, who officiated the closing ceremony, stressed the people should be prudent in ensuring that the power to govern the country be accorded to those who could ensure their well-being.

He said the power and voice of the people were translated through the present administration.

"We must ask ourselves what this power is for. Is it to champion the interest of an individual or the country and people?"

"As we know, the people are already fed-up of street and five-foot-path politics as reflected by Parti Keadilan Rakyat (PKR), which does not have any direction to lead the country.

"They only pledge empty promises. Ask yourselves what (PKR adviser) Datuk Seri Anwar Ibrahim has contributed to Penang or Permatang Pauh," he said.

Rais said the power given by the people to the current government was fully appreciated by Prime Minister Datuk Seri Najib Tun Razak to benefit the people.
