PUTRAJAYA, Jan 5 — The 6P legalisation programme for foreign workers and illegal immigrants will not extend its Saturday deadline.

The government feels the programme has gone on long enough, since October 10, to complete registrations at eight centres nationwide, said Home Ministry Deputy Minister Datuk Lee Chee Leong to Bernama Online.

The only exception will be for employers presently waiting for their employees' documents/passports approvals from their embassies. They can deal directly with the centres past the date, if they have already registered.

Lee was speaking to media during his visit to the 6P Programme's one stop centre at the Plantation Industries and Commodities Ministry's multi-purpose hall here today.

He stated that 133,156 foreign workers and illegal immigrants of 16,680 employers have been processed with Putrajaya Immigration department's one stop centre processing the most — 118,457 workers engaged by 13,387 employers.
