KOTA KINABALU, Jan 15 (Bernama) -- Kudat MP Datuk Abdul Rahim Bakri today cautioned the people against being trapped in the politics of resentment of certain quarters which can undermine racial harmony in the run-up to the next general election.

All quarters should be responsible in maintaining harmony among the people to ensure that the country remains peaceful and enjoys development and prosperity, he said in a statement wishing Chinese a happy new year. Chinese New Year falls on Jan 23.

Abdul Rahim, who is federal deputy minister of transport, said the responsibility had to be shouldered by everyone together and it called for sacrifice and a caring attitude.

"The country is like a huge family, and to establish a wholesome and stable family, there should be respect and adherence to ethics of good relationships," he said.
