KOTA BAHARU, Jan 18 (Bernama) -- PAS is not worried over the nationwide road show by former Selangor PAS commissioner Datuk Dr Hasan Ali, said PAS spiritual leader Datuk Nik Abdul Aziz Nik Mat.

He said Hasan was longer a member of PAS and he could do anything as long as they were not under the party's name.

"He is free to do anything with his attitude and but not in the name PAS as he is no longer a party member," Nik Aziz told reporters after receiving a courtesy visit by five members of parliament from China headed by its Minister of New Village Town Centre Development and the Minister of Finance Thao Guang Qing at his office in Kota Darulnaim, here Wednesday.

Nik Abdul Aziz who is also the Menteri Besar of Kelantan was asked about Hasan's proposal to hold a road show throughout the country to explain his position in politics after being sacked by PAS on Jan 8.

Meanwhile, Nik Abdul Aziz also welcomed the appointment of the State Assemblyman for Sijangkang, Dr Ahmad Yunus Hairi, as a Selangor Executive Council member to replace Hasan.

Before being dropped, Hasan was the chairman of the Selangor State Committee for Islamic Affairs, Malay Customs, Infrastructure and Public Utilities.
