KUALA LUMPUR, Jan 20 (Bernama) -- MIC president Datuk G. Palanivel, in wishing the Chinese community in Malaysia Gong Xi Fa Cai, hopes that the Year of the Dragon will usher in good luck.

In wishing them a happy and prosperous new year, the MIC chief said in his Chinese New Year message Friday that the MIC appreciated the Chinese community for their hard work, enterprising spirit and contributions to the country's economic development.

"I am certain that the Chinese community will remain a strong economic force in this country. We also appreciate the way the Chinese community has developed its temples, schools, halls, convention centres, clan associations, culture and the Mandarin language."

The Chinese lunar new year falls on Jan 23 this year and it marks the exit of the Rabbit and the entry of the Dragon under the Chinese 12-animal zodiac cycle.
