BENTONG, Jan 21 (Bernama) -- Umno members have been reminded not to discredit party leaders to ensure that the party remained strong in championing the Malays.

Party vice-president Datuk Seri Hishammuddin Tun Hussein said Umno would not tolerate members who sabotage the party.

"For the past two years, we found that when the opposition launched scathing personal attacks on our leaders, instead of coming to their defence, some members continued to harp on them.

"When this happened, it made us angry. Umno members were the ones, who picked the leaders, but why now they wanted to bring them down.

"Do not concede to something that is not true about our leaders," he told reporters after closing the three-day retreat attended by 421 state Umno leaders at Janda Baik near here Saturday.

On another note, Hishammuddin said he was happy with the state Umno's preparations for the next general election.

Terengganu Menteri Besar Datuk Seri Ahmad Said was present.
