IPOH, Jan 23 (Bernama) -- Menteri Besar Datuk Seri Dr Zambry Abdul Kadir has described the circulation of a text message, claiming that today's Chinese New Year event at his residence here would be cancelled, as a mischievous act.

"I consider the text message as a mischievous act from those who want to interrupt the celebration.

"We received numerous calls asking whether the message was true," he told a news conference after the event.

Over 5,000 people attended the event including Sultan of Perak Sultan Azlan Shah and Raja Permaisuri of Perak Tuanku Bainun as well as Raja Muda of Perak Raja Dr Nazrin Shah and Raja Puan Besar Tuanku Zara Salim.

Zambry said that various other mischievous acts such as the tearing down of his poster and that of his wife would not dampen his spirit to serve the people.

He added that the presence of a large number of people from various races at the event showed that unity prevailed among the society in the state.
