SEREMBAN, Jan 25 (Bernama) -- Those who have applied for the 1Malaysia People's Aid (BR1M) need not panic or worry if they have not received payment because the BR1M will be paid out in stages, said Negeri Sembilan Menteri Besar Datuk Seri Mohamad Hasan.

He said that the BR1M payment process in the state began on Jan 15 at the state level as well as all the State Legislative Assembly constituencies.

"This payment represents the first phase for those who had submitted their BR1M forms between Dec 10 and 27. In Negeri Sembilan, 55,000 forms had been processed and approved for payment where each applicant will receive RM500," he told reporters, here Wednesday.

He said 168,000 BR1M forms had been sent out and were yet to be processed and its payment would be made in stages.

He said the deadline for BR1M applications had been extended to Feb 10 and thus there was no reason for anyone to panic if they had not received any payment.
