PUTRAJAYA, Jan 25 (Bernama) -- The government today set Feb 15 as the deadline for the 6P legalisation programme for illegal immigrants, said Home Ministry Secretary-General Tan Sri Mahmood Adam.

He said in a statement today that previously, the legalisation process was carried out administratively after the exercise ended on Jan 10.

In this context, he said employers who had yet to submit applications for the legalisation of their illegal immigrant workers were urged to do so as soon as possible because no further extension would be made for this process.

"However, for employers who have submitted their applications and have been given an appointment date for interview, the procedure will be continued until April," he said.

Mahmood said the ministry was convinced that the time given was adequate and urged employers to attend to their application without waiting until the last minute.
