KUALA LUMPUR, Feb 10 (Bernama) -- Malaysia is hosting this year's Al-Muntada Al-Islami's Annual Conference 2012 from Feb 12-14 at Pullman Putrajaya Lakeside Hotel in Putrajaya.

The main aim of the conference is to seek new possibilities in long term business ventures and in investments in Malaysia, according to a statement from Al-Muntada Trust Organization.

The Al-Muntada Al-Islami's Annual Conference 2012 is a joint summit for investors from the Middle East, particularly from the Al-Muntada group.

Some 80 delegates are expected to attend the conference including 28 investors from Saudi Arabia, Qatar, United Kingdom, Sudan and Egypt, representing several sectors such as property, construction, real estate, trading, healthcare, oil and gas and transportation.

At the event, Malaysian companies seeking for investors have the opportunity to present their business propositions to a panel of investors. A business matching programme will also be organised, Al-Muntada said.

Former premier Tun Dr Mahathir Mohamad, who is the Honorary President of the Perdana Leadership Foundation, will be the guest of honour for the official opening ceremony.
