KUALA LUMPUR, Feb 16 (Bernama) --- The Prime Minister's wife Datin Seri Rosmah Mansor tonight received the Asia's Leading Women In Charity Award, in appreciation of her dedication and commitment to charity works.

Rosmah is the first recipient of the award which was presented at the Gala Dinner held in conjunction with the Second Annual Women in Leadership Forum Asia 2012, here.

The award was presented by the Chief Executive Officer of NASEBA (a business information company) Sophie Le Ray in a ceremony at a hotel, here Thursday night.

The emcee of the ceremony Asha Gill in her speech said that the award was in appreciation of Rosmah's contribution to the development of PERMATA (early childhood education programme) and charity works among others the Malaysia Aids Council and the Heart Institute Foundation.

She said in future the award would be named after Rosmah.
