KUALA LUMPUR, Feb 16 (Bernama) -- The Malaysian AIDS Foundation (MAF) is calling for nominations for the prestigious Tun Dr Siti Hasmah Award 2012.

A MAF statement issued Thursday said they were seeking nominations for individuals or organisations registered in Malaysia that have positively contributed to the HIV/AIDS response, between the period of January 2010 to December 2011.

An individual or organisation interested to participate must be in any one of the following fields of work, such as preventing the spread of HIV, raising awareness of HIV/AIDS issues, and supporting people living with HIV (including treatment, care and support programmes).

The other fields of work recognised for the award are supporting communities most affected by, and/or made vulnerable to HIV, advancing the human rights cause of people living with, and communities most affected by HIV, and fundraising for a HIV/AIDS cause.
