KUALA LUMPUR, Jan 30 (Bernama) -- Opposition Leader Datuk Seri Anwar Ibrahim's statement, expressing support for actions in protecting Israel's security, is a betrayal to the Palestinians and Muslims all over the world.

Perdana Global Peace Foundation adviser Datuk Mukhriz Mahathir said each time Israel's zionists killed Muslim or Christian Palestinians, they used the excuse of protecting Israel's security.

"Now someone with a big ambition to become the prime minister of Malaysia is using the same excuse in supporting the oppressive country, Israel.

"Should we be sympathetic towards the oppressors or the victims?" he said in his SMS text message to Bernama, here.

Mukhriz who is also International Trade and Industry Deputy Minister, said the same excuse was used when Israel's bulldozers flattened Palestinian homes in the West Bank and when Israeli soldiers killed Palestinians in Gaza.

He said the excuse was also used to violate the numerous United Nations resolutions and during the fatal attack on humanitarian activists on the freedom flotilla.

Meanwhile, the Pertubuhan Sukarelawan Pembangunan Sosial, Pencegahan Jenayah dan Anti Dadah Kuala Lumpur (Pencegah) or Kuala Lumpur Social Development, Crime Prevention and Anti-Drugs Voluntary Organisation lodged a police report over Anwar's statement on Israel.

The report made by its president R.Jeevan at the Dang Wangi district police headquarters here, among others, urged the Home Ministry and police to investigate Anwar's statement which appeared in The Wall Street Journal recently.

"The statement is regretted and it is against Malaysia's policy which condemns Israel's brutal zionist regime," Jeevan told reporters.
