

DPM's visit a pleasant surprise for Hat Yai blast victims
New Straits Times
06 April 2012

ALOR STAR: Deputy Prime Minister Tan Sri Muhyiddin Yassin visited the two Hat Yai bomb blast victims at Sultanah Bahiyah Hospital, here, yesterday.

The two victims -- Lew Kim Lai, 39, and his wife, Lim Hock Bee, 37 -- who are being treated for burns, were pleasantly surprised with Muhyiddin's visit. He spent 15 minutes with the couple and wished them a speedy recovery.

Kim Lai's father, Fong Khoon, 68, thanked Muhyiddin for visiting his son and daughter-in-law. "I can't believe that the deputy prime minister came to visit my son and his wife. I am touched by his kindness."

Kim Lai and his wife were among 10 Malaysian tourists injured in the bomb blast at Lee Gardens Plaza Hotel last Saturday.

Copyright © 2012 The New Straits Times Press (Malaysia) Berhad.

Source: <http://www.nst.com.my/nation/general/dpm-s-visit-a-pleasant-surprise-for-hat-yai-blast-victims-1.71385>