ALOR GAJAH: Large crowds are turning up at events attended by Prime Minister Datuk Seri Najib Razak and other government leaders, Umno information chief Datuk Ahmad Maslan said yesterday.

"The huge turnout at events attended by the prime minister, his deputy, Tan Sri Muhyiddin Yassin, and other Barisan Nasional leaders shows that the people are returning to the ruling coalition," he said, alluding to setbacks encountered by Barisan Nasional in the 2008 general election.

Ahmad, who is deputy minister in the Prime Minister's Department, said the various transformation programmes had brought about positive changes.

He named the 1Malaysia Clinic, 1Malaysia People's Assistance, 1Malaysia People's Store, 1Malaysia Housing Programme and the 1Malaysia Book Voucher as some of those which had been well received.
