KUALA LUMPUR: Penang Wanita Umno chief Zabariah Wahab questioned Parti Keadilan Rakyat president Datin Seri Dr Wan Azizah Wan Ismail for keeping mum over the various sexual allegations against her husband, Datuk Seri Anwar Ibrahim.

"As a wife and the closest person to Anwar, Dr Wan Azizah should protect her husband's dignity," Zabariah said in commenting on allegations made by Malaysian United Indian Party president Datuk S. Nallakaruppan against Anwar.

"By keeping mum on this issue, her credibility as a wife and mother has to be questioned."

Zabariah said Dr Wan Azizah, as a wife, should clear her husband's name and not let the public hurl accusations against him.

"People want to know the truth to all these allegations. Dr Wan Azizah must clear all doubts on this issue."

Anwar had on Monday filed a RM100 million defamation suit against Nallakaruppan over the allegations. Dr Wan Azizah could not be reached for comment.
