THREE years after launching the Government Transformation Programme, Datuk Seri Najib Tun Razak stood before the people with a record of progress in the seven targeted areas.

Summarising the GTP Annual Report 2011, the Prime Minister went through the efforts expanded in the National Key Result Areas, including addressing the high cost of living, reducing crime, fighting corruption and improving public transport.

Citing facts and figures, he showed that the Government had delivered. Given the chance, he said, it could still do much more for the rakyat.
