ALOR SETAR: Deputy Prime Minister Tan Sri Muhyiddin Yassin visited the two Haadyai bomb blast victims at the Sultanah Bahiyah Hospital here.

He spent about 30 minutes with Lew Kim Lai, 39, and his wife Lim Hock Bee, 37, who suffered between 30% and 40% burns on their bodies.

He was accompanied by Putra 1Malaysia Club chairman Datuk Abdul Azeez Abdul Rahim, Kedah MCA chairman Datuk Chong Itt Chew and Kedah Barisan Nasional chairman Datuk Paduka Ahmad Bashah Md Hanipah.

Kim Lai's father Lew Fong Khoon, 68, said he was grateful to the Putra 1Malaysia Club for bringing his son and daughter-in-law back for treatment.

He said their condition had been improving since they returned here from the Songkhla Nagarind Hospital on Tuesday night.

However, he said both could not speak as tubes are still placed in their mouths.

"If they want anything, they write on a piece of paper and show it to us," he said yesterday.
