PETALING JAYA: The Government has ensured that the top 100 Indian students who achieved first class degree will be given full scholarship to pursue post-graduate studies at local universities, said Prime Minister Datuk Seri Najib Tun Razak.

"These top students can now pursue post-graduate degrees at public universities should they decide to do so," he said adding that it reflected the Government's commitment to education for Malaysian Indians.

Najib was at the launching the 30th anniversary of Sri Murugan Centre here.

He said the Government had kept all of its promises made in 2009 to Malaysians, including the Indian community.

"My promise was that under the Malaysian skies, we will all have fair treatment and I believe in the last three years, I have delivered, and the Government has delivered.

"Just imagine what we can do for the Indian community and the nation, if we have another five years," he said.
