KUALA LUMPUR: Prime Minister Datuk Seri Najib Tun Razak said he could not reveal the date of the 13th General Election although he knew about it.

He hoped the public, including the media, appreciated his answer as he needed to keep a few secrets to himself.

Najib was asked at a question-and-answer session after launching the Foreign Correspondents Club of Malaysia (FCCM) here.

Najib said the question on the election date was akin to asking the Coca Cola chief executive officer to divulge the secret ingredients that made the drink famous.

"I'm sure you can appreciate why I can't reveal it...even if I know, I got to keep the trade secret to myself," he said.

According to Najib, he was aware that some foreign news agency had predicted that the election was to be held in June.
