KUALA LUMPUR, Jan 1 (Bernama) -- Deputy Prime Minister Tan Sri Muhyiddin Yassin today joined about 5,000 revellers to celebrate the new year and the 1Malaysia Christmas Open House organised by the People's Progressive Party (PPP).

Muhyiddin, who was accompanied by his wife, Puan Sri Norainee Abdul Rahman, later gave away 1Malaysia netbook computers to eight secondary school students who were from poor families.

Present were Information Communications and Culture Minister Datuk Seri Utama Dr Rais Yatim and his wife, Datin Seri Masnah Rais, PPP president Datuk M. Kayveas and Deputy Information Communications and Culture Minister Datuk Maglin Dennis D'Cruz.

The guests and 532 children from welfare homes and orphanages from the Klang Valley were entertained by singers and dancers from the National Academy of Arts and Heritage (Aswara), Istana Budaya and the Culture and Arts Department.

To mark the auspicious occasion, Muhyiddin, Rais and Kayveas cut a cake together to usher in the new year.
