MUAR, Aug 21 (Bernama) -- Non-Muslims in this country should not worry about Muslim unity as it would be good for the country's progress and development, said Tan Sri Muhyiddin Yassin.

The deputy prime minister said Muslims were the main group in the country and hence, unity among them was something that would be very good for the country.

Muhyiddin, who is also education minister and Pagoh Umno division head, was speaking at a Raya contribution handing-over, Quran reading and breaking-of-fast event organised by the Pagoh Umno division at Dewan Seri Pekembar, here, Sunday.

He said all communities would benefit from Muslim unity in the country.

At the function, Muhyiddin also received zakat from various corporate bodies to be distributed to needy Muslims.

Amanah Raya Berhad (ARB) contributed RM100,000 in zakat which was handed over by its chairman Datuk Dusuki Ahmad, and Syarikat Teras Jati, RM50,000.

Bank Simpanan Nasional (BSN) gave away a hearse van to Kampung Paya Mosque, Bukit Pasir which was handed over by its deputy chief executive officer Yunus Abdul Ghani.

Proton Berhad contributed daily essentials including rice, dates, sugar, flour and Milo worth RM24,000 for needy Muslims.
