SERDANG, Oct 23 (Bernama) - Opposition parties have a tendency to blame Umno and the Barisan Nasional (BN) for all problems, said Deputy Prime Minister, Tan Sri Muhyiddin Yassin.

He was referring to Penang Chief Minister Lim Guan Eng who put the blame on pro-UMNO bloggers for claiming his (Lim's) son had molested a 16-year-old schoolmate and tried to escape punishment.

"Don't blame anybody. However, it is the tendency of the opposition and Pakatan. When their have their own problems, they start to blame Umno.

"However, if there is a fault, we have to find out what is the main cause," he told a press conference after a holding a meeting with Selangor BN leaders here Saturday.

Muhyiddin also urged Lim to lodge a police report and let the police to investigate and clear the air.

"A mere denial is not enough. If not in the wrong, ask the police to investigate and clear matters," he said.
