KOTA KINABALU, Oct 24 (Bernama) -- Sabah MIC will hold a Deepavali open house on Oct 30 at the Likas Sports Complex Multi-Purpose Hall from 11am to 3pm.

State MIC chief Datuk V Jothi said Deputy Prime Minister Tan Sri Muhyiddin Yassin and Chief Minister Datuk Seri Musa Aman are expected to attend the event together with leaders of state Barisan Nasional component parties.

Deepavali is an opportunity for Malaysians to reflect on the meaning of the festival and how the spirit of Deepavali, that is the triumph of light over darkness, is still very much relevant today, Jothi said.

"MIC Sabah has always made it a point to hold Deepavali open house every year, and this year is no exception as we spread the message of goodwill and friendship through the festival of lights."

"In the true spirit of 1Malaysia, I would like to wish all Malaysians, especially the Indian community, wherever they are a very happy Deepavali," he said in a statement, here Monday.

Jothi hoped that the Indian community will be able to celebrate and share this special time with family and with friends of all races.

"As we celebrate Deepavali, our thoughts and prayers also go to the unfortunate and all who faces hardship at this time," said Jothi.
