KUALA LUMPUR, March 2 (Bernama) -- The attorney-general has returned the investigation papers pertaining to the National Feedlot Corporation (NFCorp) for the police to conduct further investigation, Deputy Inspector-General of Police Datuk Seri Khalid Abu Bakar said Friday.

He said the police would comply with the instruction of the attorney-general to conduct further investigation on NFCorp.

"Do not make any assumption," he told reporters after closing a Diploma in Investigative Science programme at the Royal Malaysia Police College in Cheras, here.

Khalid presented the diplomas to 38 graduates who had completed the 2010/2011 programme.
