HULU TERENGGANU, March 2 (Bernama) - The Sultan of Terengganu, Sultan Mizan Zainal Abidin said immediate efforts must be taken to attract more young people to mosques.

He said mosque committees should implement programmes that can attract young people and provide them with suitable knowledge.

"The position of imam and bilal are honourable because it is in relation to the house of god, the most sacred place on earth," he said when opening Masjid Kuala Pueh here today .

Also present at the ceremony were the Menteri Besar, Datuk Seri Ahmad Said and Commissioner for Islamic Affairs, Mohd Rozali Salleh.

The ruler said young people are not ready to serve as immam or bilal and this can be seen by the the small number frequenting mosques.
