PETALING JAYA, March 4 (Bernama) -- Participants of the BN Youth Music 2011 were happy to be given the opportunity to show off their talent in the competition organised by Barisan Nasional Youth.

Adri Iskandar Mohd Noor, 27, a member of the Skudap Skudip group, said such a competition could help bring the various genres of music in Malaysia to a higher level.

"It can also serve as a platform for the young generation to voice out their views and get closer to the national leaders," he said, here, today.

More than 3,000 people watched the music competition held at the Curve shopping mall in Mutiara Damansara and organised by BN Youth for the first time.
