RAUB, March 4 (Bernama) -- Domestic tourism is one of the areas from which youths in the country can generate income, said Tourism Minister Datuk Seri Dr Ng Yen Yen.

She said there were various tourism activities where local youths could seriously venture into and make it their main source of income.

Dr Ng cited the homestay programme which had proven to be a viable economic activity.

"Currently, Malaysia is the ninth most popular tourism destination in the world and one of its most attractive tourism products is the homestay programme.

Dr Ng also said that the ministry planned to make Raub a frequently visited place under the District Integrated Tourism Development programme by selling attractions such as Fraser's Hill, Jeram Besu, Lata Jarum Waterfall and the rafflesia.
