KULIM, March 4 (Bernama) -- Kedah Umno Liaison deputy chief Datuk Mukhriz Mahathir said state governments led by opposition parties were only good at rhetoric but failed miserably at looking after the interests of the people.

He said in Kedah, for example, the opposition leaders were always fighting among themselves while the people's interests took a backseat since they came into power, to the extent that the people had become fed up of their antics.

"To me, whoever the Menteri Besar from Pas is and the state executive council (exco) members and their portfolios are meaningless because for the past four years, the Pakatan Rakyat has not brought any development for the people in Kedah," he said after launching a fishing event, Hambat Cah, on the banks of Sungai Muda in Kampung Permatang Berangan, Merbau Pulas, near here, Sunday.
