KUALA TERENGGANU, March 4 (Bernama) -- The Terengganu Parti Keadilan Rakyat (PKR) intends to field 14 candidates - three for parliamentary seats and 11 for state seats - in the coming 13th general election.

Its chairman, Azan Ismail, said this, however, would depend on its discussion at the federal level with other Pakatan Rakyat allies.

The final decision will be made on March 15, he said, adding that an announcement would be made after that.

Azan, who is Indra Mahkota Member of Parliament, said the Terengganu PKT had a better chance this time around because of "credible" and "winnable" candidates.
