ALOR SETAR, March 5 (Bernama) -- Kedah PAS Deputy Commissioner I Datuk Phahrolrazi Zawawi and Deputy Commissioner II Datuk Dr Ismail Salleh accepted the party directive to be reappointed as state excos.

Phahrolrazi and Dr Ismail also abided by the party directive on the setting up of a state government administration steering committee to solve the crisis with Menteri Besar Datuk Seri Azizan Abdul Razak.

After discussing with the Kedah PAS' Dewan Ulama, as adviser, I agree with an open heart to accept the directive to be reappointed as exco. If I do not accept with an open heart, I would be a disappointed man," said Phahrolrazi at a press conference at his house in Taman Gunong Perak, here.

He said his aspiration to see the setting up of the steering committee as suggested by the party headquarters was realised as decisions made by the Menteri Besar could now be reviewed.

PAS secretary-general Datuk Mustapa Ali, in Kuala Lumpur today, said the three decisions to solve the crisis were that Azizan remained as Menteri Besar until the end of his tenure, Phahrolrazi and Dr Ismail be reappointed as excos and a steering committee be set up to monitor the administration of Kedah.
