KUANTAN, Feb 25 — A senior Selangor PKR official was arrested for “khalwat” (close proximity) by state Islamic officials at a hotel near Balok this morning, according to Bernama Online.

The man had been detained along with a woman, believed to be another man’s spouse, during a pre-dawn raid by Pahang Islamic Religious Department (JAIP) enforcers.

JAIP deputy director Datuk Mohd Ghazali Abdul Aziz confirmed the arrests but declined to comment other than to say investigations were ongoing.

According to media reports, the man was in Kuantan to attend a three-day conference with other PKR leaders that was due to end today.

Efforts to reach PKR leaders over the case have so far been unsuccessful.
