ALOR SETAR, Feb 25 — Datuk Phahrolrazi Zawawi today denied talk he was masterminding an ouster of Kedah Mentri Besar Datuk Seri Azizan Abdul Razak, which intensified after the former was reportedly omitted from the latest state executive council list.

“My movement is PAS. The speculation is not true and conspiracy allegations about overthrowing the menteri besar are also not true,” Bernama Online quoted the Kedah PAS deputy commissioner as saying today.

It was earlier rumoured that Phahrolrazi and Dr Ismail Salleh had snubbed their reappointments to the state exco, members of which are due to be sworn in for the new term next week.

The duo are thought to be at loggerheads with Azizan over his style of leadership. Besides being menteri besar, Azizan is also head of the state PAS chapter.

Today, Phahrolrazi said he has yet to receive an invitation to attend the swearing-in ceremony next week, but said he would not be dejected if he does not make it back onto the council.
