KUALA LUMPUR, Feb 28 — Information, Communications and Culture Minister Datuk Seri Dr Rais Yatim found an unfamiliar friend in PAS Youth as the opposition party wing lauded the minister's decision to axe Erykah Badu's concert tomorrow.

In a released statement to Bernama Online, secretary Khairul Faizi Ahmad Kamil said the decision to uphold Islam should be commended.

Badu's picture in the The Star newspaper yesterday caused an uproar, because it revealed tattoos on her, one of them displaying the word Allah in Arabic.

The 40-year-old from Dallas, Texas who sings funk, hip hop and soul has won the highly coveted Grammy award.

The English daily's editors have been summoned by the home ministry, and today an apology was published.
