KULIM, March 10 (Bernama) -- A group of Umno branch leaders in the Kulim/Bandar Baharu division today urged former Information Minister Tan Sri Abdul Kadir Sheikh Fadzir to sue The Malaysian Insider news portal for its posting of a statement, allegedly by him, on alleged vote buying by Barisan Nasional (BN).

Mat Saad Osman, who claimed to be the spokesman for the group, said they met Abdul Kadir in Kuala Lumpur last Feb 19 and he (Abdul Kadir) denied that he made such a statement.

"We want Tan Sri Abdul Kadir to sue The Malaysia Insider news portal because he denied making the statement when we met him in Kuala Lumpur last Feb 19," he said, reading from a prepared text at a media conference at Surau Kampung Air Merah here.

He said another option was for Abdul Kadir to make a public apology to voters in Kulim/Bandar Baharu constituency.
