SUNGAI PETANI, March 10 (Bernama) -- Kedah Menteri Besar Datuk Seri Azizan Abdul Razak made the right decision by placing the state constitution as the sole authority to resolve the recent crisis in the state said Information Communications and Culture Minister Datuk Seri Dr Rais Yatim.

Rais said when facing the crisis that saw PAS interfering in the state administrative affairs by forming a steering committee to oversee the administration of the state, Azizan had stood firm and held his ground by not allowing any interference.

"The Kedah Menteri Besar's decision to stay firm and stick to the state constitution which gives the Menteri Besar executive powers to administer the state, should be applauded.

"His strong personality shows that he is a Menteri Besar who understands the law although surrounded by numerous problems faced by the people in the state," he said when referring to Azizan who snubbed an attempt by PAS to undermine his authority in administering the state.
