

Exempt Flood Victims From Paying Water Bills For Cleaning Purposes - Ahmad Shabery Bernama
March 11, 2012

KUALA LUMPUR, March 11 (Bernama) -- All victims of the floods on Wednesday should be exempted from paying the bill for water used for cleaning their homes and surroundings.

Youth and Sports Minister Datuk Seri Ahmad Shabery Cheek said he would make the proposal to the government as soon as possible as the victims were expected to use a lot of water to clean their homes and surrounding areas.

"We do not want the victims to bear the burden after incurring big losses from the flood. We will discuss with the government so that the Selangor Water Supply Company will exempt the victims from paying for water used to clean their homes and surrounding areas," he told reporters.

Ahmad Shabery, prior to this, visited the affected areas and handed food to the victims. He was joined by the volunteer group MyCorps.
