PUTRAJAYA, Mac 11 (Bernama) - People should exercise their consumer rights and boycott traders who hike prices indiscriminately, especially after Prime Minister Datuk Seri Najib Tun Razak's announcement of a raise for civil servants, said Umno secretary-general Datuk Seri Tengku Adnan Tengku Mansor.

He advised civil servants to spend wisely and be constantly aware about the price of goods.

"The weapon is in your hands, ladies and gentlemen. As consumers we should exercise our rights and buy only reasonably priced goods. Don't let irresponsible traders take advantage," he emphasised.

"I have personally carried out a price check and found that prices are low at the Kedai Rakyat 1Malaysia," he remarked during the distribution of 1Malaysia People's Aid vouchers at the Precinct 9 neighbourhood centre here Sunday.
