PUTRAJAYA, March 13 (Bernama) -- Students of the Teachers' Graduating Programme and Post-Degree Teaching Course (KPLI) will be considered for the RM200 book voucher, Deputy Education Minister Datuk Dr Wee Ka Siong said.

He said the matter was discussed during the recent cabinet meeting and that the Higher Education Ministry had been informed about it.

"It is learned that Higher Education Ministry is looking into the matter," he told a media conference after attending the Teachers' Education Institute convocation here.

He was commenting on complaints by students of both courses over their ineligibility for the voucher.

The book voucher was announced by the Prime Minister Datuk Seri Najib Tun Razak when tabling the 2012 Budget last year.
