GEORGE TOWN, March 13 (Bernama) -- The Penang Malay Congress (KMPP) today claimed that Parti Keadilan Rakyat (PKR) and PAS have failed to help uplift the economy of the Malays in Penang from the time Pakatan Rakyat (PR) began administrating the state in 2008.

KMPP president Rahmad Isahak said he was convinced that this would enable the Barisan Nasional, particularly Umno, to regain the support of the Malays in Penang.

As such, he said, the BN must work hard to recapture the state in the next general election.
