KUALA LUMPUR, March 15 (Bernama) -- The Association of Banks in Malaysia (ABM), comprising Malaysian commercial banks, has reiterated its members' support towards My First House Scheme.

Its executive director, Chuah Mei Lin said participating banks have been accepting and processing applications for the scheme, which were reviewed based on its merits.

The merits included the applicant's credit score, behaviour and debt servicing capability as well as conditions envisaged by the scheme. In the case of some banks, the acceptance rate for the scheme is higher than the banks' average acceptance rate, she added.

"There is no intention whatsoever on the part of the banks to be unduly harsh and difficult," she said in a statement.

Members of the public who wish to know more about banks participating in the scheme may access the scheme website, www.srp.com.my, or contact ABM's toll free line at 1-300-88-9980 or write to the association via its website, www.abm.org.my.
