SINGAPORE, Feb 17 (Bernama) -- The Sultan of Johor, Sultan Ibrahim Sultan Iskandar, visited the Singapore Airshow 2012 this morning, at the invitation of Singapore Defence Minister Dr Ng Eng Hen.

In a statement, the ministry said Dr Ng hosted His Royal Highness to lunch, where they viewed the aerial display.

Sultan Ibrahim was received at the Changi Exhibition Centre by Chief of Defence Forces Lieutenant-General Neo Kian Hong.

The ministry described the Sultan's visit as underscoring the warm and longstanding bilateral relations between Singapore and Malaysia.

The Singapore Airshow 2012 is Asia's largest and one of the three most important aerospace and defence exhibitions in the world. Stretching from Feb 14 to 19, the airshow plays host to about 900 exhibitors from 50 countries and 266 delegations from 80 countries.
