KUALA LUMPUR, March 20 (Bernama) -- The MCA slammed the DAP for being irresponsible for not taking part in the Parliamentary Select Committee (PSC) on Lynas to find a solution to the rare earth issue.

In a statement issued here, the party's deputy publicity chief Loh Seng Kok said it showed that the DAP does not want to convey the views of the people to parliament.

He said the DAP has been objecting to the establishment of the Lynas rare earth refinery and added that its decision not to join the PSC was "simply baffling".

"The DAP has declared that it will not take part in the PSC before any terms of reference are made. This means that DAP has neglected performing any good for the people," he said.
