KUALA LUMPUR, March 21 (Bernama) -- The spat between DAP chairman Karpal Singh and its deputy secretary-general-cum-Penang Deputy Chief Minister Dr P. Ramasamy has been resolved.

Party secretary-general Lim Guan Eng said in a statement Wednesday, the issue was resolved after a meeting was held between him, party veteran Lim Kit Siang, party life adviser Dr Chen Man Hin and Karpal on Tuesday night.

The spat between Karpal and Ramasamy re-ignited after Karpal was reported to have said the four-member committee headed by DAP Disciplinary Committee chairman Tan Kok Wai was unfit to probe Ramasamy, and that the proceeding should have been deemed void from the beginning.
