KUALA LUMPUR, March 23 (Bernama) -- Wanita Umno chief Datuk Seri Shahrizat Abdul Jalil said today her relations with vice-chief Datuk Kamilia Ibrahim remained cordial despite the latter's call for her to resign.

Shahrizat said she was not upset at her actions and that she accepted Kamilia's view considering that they knew each other since school days.

"It's not a big deal. For me, she has given her view, so I accepted it.

"I'm not easily hurt. We come from one family; as the head, I must accept all challenges because I am the umbrella to all including Datuk Kamilia," she told reporters after attending the Wanita Umno Gathering with Umno President at Dewan Merdeka, Putra World Trade Centre here.

Shahrizat was asked to elaborate on her personal relations with Kamilia following the latter's call for her to resign "to protect the credibility of the party, Wanita movement, Barisan Nasional (BN) and government" following the National Feedlot Corporation (NFC) issue.
