GEORGE TOWN, March 24 (Bernama) -- A man who was reported stranded in Medan, Indonesia, for the past eight years after he followed his wife to visit her family there could not express his elation at finally stepping foot on Malaysian soil again today.

Mohamad Shahril Mohd Khalid, 32, from Kampung Bukit Palong, Baling, Kedah said he and his wife Nur Diana Sibuea, 29, would begin a new life in Malaysia with his family.

"I'm happy that I finally get to come home with the help of the 1Malaysia Putera Club chaired by Datuk Abdul Azeez Abdul Rahim. I will now start over by finding a job to support my family and change our lives," he told reporters upon arrival at the Penang International Airport (LTAPP), here, Saturday.
