KOTA KINABALU, March 24 (Bernama) -- Parti Bersatu Sabah (PBS) hopes the National Registration Department (NRD) will adopt caution in their mobile registration exercise to facilitate issuance of birth certificate or Mykad, said its vice president Datuk Radin Malleh.

He said this was to prevent the identification documents from landing in the hands of illegal immigrants.

"The department must be cautious because there have been attempts by such foreigners to obtain them. If these documents fall into their hands, the country's sovereignty and security might be compromised," he told reporters after representing the Chief Minister to launch the SK Darau parent-teachers association annual general meeting in Menggatal here Saturday.
