KOTA MARUDU, Feb 25 (Bernama) -- Chief Minister Datuk Seri Musa Aman wants Umno information heads in all divisions in Sabah to intensify briefing campaigns to ward off all allegations and attacks hurled by the opposition against the Barisan Nasional (BN) to win public support in the next general election.

He said the opposition parties should not be given any opportunity to twist the facts and exploit current issues for political gain.

"We are facing the 13th general election any time soon. Thus, we must work hard to strengthen party machinery.

"We must intensify information campaigns. We should not be complacent and easily satisfied with our present position," he said at the closing of the Kota Marudu Zone 1 Premier Information Session at the Community Hall, here Saturday.
