KUALA LUMPUR, Feb 25 (Bernama) -- Police are proposing to charge the chairman of the National Feedlot Corporation (NFC) Datuk Dr Mohamed Salleh Ismail, the husband of the Minister of Women, Family and Community Development Datuk Seri Shahrizat Abdul Jalil for criminal breach of trust.

Bukit Aman Commercial CID director Datuk Syed Ismail Syed Azizan said the proposal was in the investigation paper being prepared by police after it had been returned from the Attorney-General's (AG) office on Tuesday to investigate several other matters.

"The investigation would be sent back to the AG shortly," he said when contacted by Bernama, here tonight.

The issue on NFC headed by Mohamad Salleh as the executive chairman began to receive public attention after the Auditor-General's 2010 Report in October said NFC failed to meet the objective of its establishment.
